SPECIAL COLLECTIONS

REMITTANCE POLICIES & PROCEDURES

General Policies

- All special collections should be taken up on the specified collection date.
- To request an exception to allow your parish to take up the special collection on an alternate date, parishes should email Marie Van Remortel (mvanremortel@rcab.org) in the Vicar General's office with a copy to Scot Landry, Secretary for Institutional Advancement (slandry@rcab.org).
- Exceptions cannot be granted to eliminate a special collection for a particular parish.
- All collection proceeds should be remitted as soon as possible after the collection. In most cases, this should happen within two weeks of the collection. If a parish needs more time to receive the envelopes, it should remit within 30 days of the collection.
- Collection proceeds (except Mission Cooperative Appeal) should be remitted to: Cashier, Archdiocese of Boston Pastoral Center, 66 Brooks Drive, Braintree, MA 02184-3839.
- Please include your parish number and the collection name on the remittance check.

Christmas & Easter Collections

- The Christmas and Easter Collections are a primary source of funding for the retirement, medical, and financial needs of the priests of the Archdiocese of Boston.
- There is to be only one collection taken up at each Christmas Mass (including Vigils) and at each Easter Mass (including Vigils). There must be no collection taken up for other purposes (including the parish) on these dates.
- There is to be only one collection envelope used at Christmas Masses and one at Easter Masses. Even if the company that sends the envelopes to your parishioners included an extra envelope, all monies collected at Christmas and Easter are to be a part of this collection and remitted to support the Clergy Benefit Trust.
- The remittance check containing the full collected amount with your parish identification number should be made payable to Clergy Benefit Trust and sent to the Pastoral Center within two weeks of the collection under normal circumstances (within 30 days at the most).
- Parishes staffed by Religious Order priests may retain the Christmas & Easter Collections for the sick and retired priests of their religious order;

Mission Cooperative Appeal

- Collection proceeds for the Mission Cooperative Appeal should be remitted to: Rev. Thomas A. Kopp, Propagation of the Faith Office, Archdiocese of Boston Pastoral Center, 66 Brooks Drive, Braintree, MA 02184-3839.
- Please include your parish number and the collection name on the remittance check.

Notifying Envelope Companies

- Because most parishes have second collections that they take up for the needs of the parish, we ask parishes to communicate all their second/special collection dates to their envelope company directly.
- This notification is particularly important when there are revisions to the calendar (like 2009).
